

NOTES FOR DIRECTOR
INTRODUCTION OF DR. THEO SOMMER

CIA Guest Speaker
19 April 1978

1. WELCOME TO GUESTS FROM THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY
2. BIOGRAPHIC SUMMARY
 - A. BORN KONSTANZ, GERMANY, 1930.
 - B. STUDIED HISTORY, POLITICAL SCIENCE, AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AT TUEBINGEN UNIVERSITY AND AT UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO.
 - C. 1960 - PARTICIPANT IN HARVARD UNIVERSITY'S INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SEMINAR, THEN DIRECTED BY HENRY KISSINGER.
 - D. WITH DIE ZEIT, HAMBURG, SINCE 1958 AS FOREIGN EDITOR, DEPUTY EDITOR AND EDITOR-IN-CHIEF (1973). CHIEF, PLANNING STAFF, MINISTRY OF DEFENSE, FRG, 1969-1970.
 - E. WRITER, LECTURER, AND TELEVISION COMMENTATOR ON INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS, STRATEGIC QUESTIONS, AND THE GERMAN PROBLEM--CONTRIBUTOR TO AMERICAN PUBLICATIONS SUCH AS FOREIGN AFFAIRS.
3. TOPIC: "THE TWO GERMANY'S IN TOMORROW'S EUROPE"
(NOTE: DR. SOMMER SHOULD USE NECK MIKE IF HE PLANS TO MOVE AROUND STAGE.)
4. QUESTION PERIOD
5. CONCLUSION: 4:15 P.M.

Dr. Theo Sommer

Born 1930 in Konstanz; studied History, Political Science and International Relations in Sweden, at Tuebingen University and the University of Chicago; wrote his Ph.D.thesis on "Germany and Japan between the Powers 1935-1940" (published 1962). 1960 participant International Summer Seminar, Harvard University.

Foreign Editor of DIE ZEIT 1958, Deputy Editor 1968; Chief of Planning Staff, Ministry of Defence, Bonn 1969/70; Editor-in-Chief DIE ZEIT 1973; writes mainly on international affairs, strategic questions and the German problem; travelled extensively in Europe, America and Asia; TV-commentator; 1967-1970 reader for Political Science at the University of Hamburg; author and editor of several books; regular contributor to American publications (Foreign Affairs, Interplay, Newsweek).

Member German Foreign Policy Association; Council member London Institute for Strategic Studies.

DR. THEO SOMMER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, DIE ZEIT

2 HAMBURG 1
PRESSEHAUS

TEL. 3 28 02 10
GERMANY